

The EMC Heritage Trust Project Application/Nomination Form for Grant Year 2007

About The EMC Heritage Trust Project

The EMC Heritage Trust Project recognizes and supports projects in local communities around the world that preserve and protect information resources of special significance—and that improve access to them. Recognition will include cash grants to honorees ranging from $5,000 to $15,000.

Any local organization or institution (public or private) or any individual may apply for, or be nominated for, recognition and support.

*With the exception of fraternal organizations, political causes or candidates, or organizations that promote or practice discrimination.

Examples of Projects

The Heritage Trust Project supports those contributing to the digital curation and stewardship of:

- Local library, museum, or historical society collections
- Significant private collections of music, letters, or art
- Archives and records of cultural or educational institutions and local businesses

Key Deadlines

- Deadline for Grant Year 2007 applications and nominations is November 30, 2007.
- Evaluation by an independent panel of judges will be completed by January 30, 2008.
- Honorees will be notified no later than February 14, 2008.
